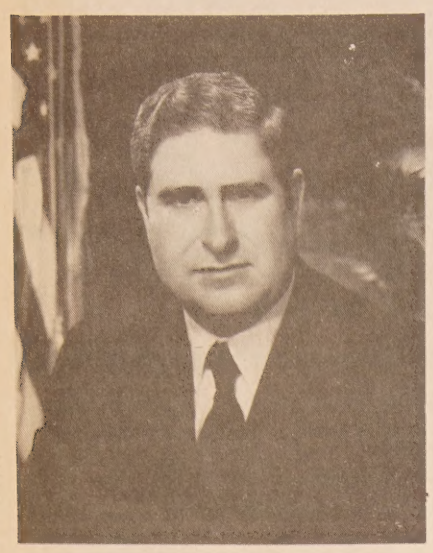
C. MARK SMITH NAMED TO EDB POST



C. Mark Smith, prominent Tacoma businessman and former federal economic development official, has been named Executive Director of the Tacoma-Pierce County Economic Development Board. The announcement was made by Charles E. Cereghino, EDB president and director of community relations for the Weyerhaeuser Company, following action by the EDB's executive committee at its last meeting.

In making the announcement, Cereghino said, "We're really pleased that Mark was available to take this position. We looked at a number of finalists, one from as far away as North Carolina. In the end, we discovered we already had the best person for the job right here in Tacoma. We were particularly sensitive to the fact that Mark already served on our executive committee and had been active in the EDB. We went out of our way to look at other candidates. I'm sure Mark would agree that this was the toughest selection process he's ever been through."

"We've made so much progress in Tacoma and Pierce County in the past two years because the public sector and private sector have agreed to cooperate with each other. We want someone at the helm of the EDB who understands that public-private process." Funding is provided by the Chamber of Commerce of Tacoma-Pierce County, the City of Tacoma, Pierce County, and the Port of Tacoma.

UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES EXPOSED

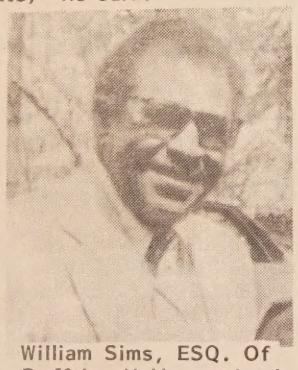
Rochester MBE's (Minority Business Enterprises) are reportedly pressured to fail by "prime" and "majority" (white) contractors to whom they have sub-contracted. This was the theme sounded by Rochester area MBE's who visited the offices of The Impartial Citizen last week and expressed their views about the current state of MBE affairs.

"The pressure is always on," stated one contractor, "to prove that a minority contractor cannot succeed." The contractors agreed that the purpose of such pressure is to prevent and "minority" owned contractor from emerging from a small business to one that can compete for construction projects with the few larger firms that dominate the construction industry in Central and Western New York.

Rochester minority contractors reported that the tactics used by prime contractors is as varied as the creative energy of man. Obstacles are placed before the bidding (including making late or no announcement of bids); at bid time, after and buring the contract period.

"We must pull together and put a halt to the tactics used by the prime contractors to keep MBE's from getting their fair share of the construction pie," a Rochester contractor told the IC. "If we continue to be frozen out of the industry, there will be serious repercussions in the cities throughout the State," he said.

Legal REsearch In Trinity Contuction case is being taken by Law Assistant SCOTT D. RODMAN,



William Sims, ESQ. Of Buffalo, N.Y. retained last week to represent Trinity Contruction CO. Rochester, NY, MBE in a dispute with General Contractor

JOHNNY BALLARD, President of Rochester, NY-based Trinity Construction Co., now engaged in legal challenge to practices of General Contractor on a NY State Department of Transportation Project.

Senior Who Raised Tot Wins Adoption Hearing

Gussie Alexis, the 63-year-old widow battling to keep the foster child she weaned from heroin addiction (JET, July 5) has filed adoption papers after an order forcing her to surrender the little girl was withdrawn.

Her fight to adopt 2½-year-old Tyechia Reid "is being reviewed and things look favorably," said Anita Delaney of the city's special services for children division. "But no decision has been reached."

Mrs. Alexis, of Queens, received a letter last month from the Graham-Windham adoption agency telling her she had to surrender Tyechia despite her wish to adopt the girl. The Queens woman said she had been told she is too old to adopt a child.

BLACK HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WHO WILL BE JUNIORS IN SEPTEMBER 1982

1982 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/ NMSOT) testing dates for students who with to compete for Achievement Scholarships to be awarded in 1984.

Black students who will complete high school and enter college in 1984 may enter the competitions for scholarships to be awarded by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) in 1984 by taking the 1982 PSAT/NMSOT and indicating on the answer sheet that they wish to be considered for the Achievement Scholarship competition also. The 1982 PSAT/NMSOT will be administered in over 18,000 high schools on Tuesday, October 19, 1982, or Saturday, October 23, 1982. The school selects the date that fits most conveniently into its scheduled program. Most students complete grades 9 through12 in four years. Students who follow this pattern and who will complete the fourth year of high school in 1984 must take the 1982 PSAT/NMSOT as juniors (11th graders) in order to qualify yor 1984 scholarships.

Colleges and univertities that sponsored Achievement Scholarships in 1982 will be listed in the 1982 PTAT NMSOT STUDENT BULLETIN. The 1982 PSAT NMSOT STUDENT BULLETIN is the basic reference for students who wish to compete for scholarships to be awarded 1984 through the facilities of NMSC. This publication contains information about the competitions and the scholarships awarded each year. In addition about the competitions and the scholarships awarded each year. In addition, it describes the psat nmsot and gives sample test questions. Secondary schools that register to give the PSAT NMSOT will receive STUDENT BULLETINS for distribution to students and staff in advance of the test date. It is expected that over one million students will take the PSAT/NMSOT in 1982.

TO BE EQUAL

BY JOHN JACOBS

Unemployment can no longer be passed off as a temporary problem that will be solved when the economy rights itself. A major bar to an expanding economy is precisely the large number of workers whose skills are fast becoming outmoded as robots replace them on assembly lines and advanced electronics eliminates unskilled and semi-skilled work.

It is useless for our leaders to tell the unemployed to look at all the want ads in the newspapers--most of those are for computer programmers and other jobs for which there is a shortage of people with the required skills.

The permanent unemployment settling in to our economy and affecting a large portion of the jobless violates the most precious of human rights--the rights to a job.

That combination of violated human rights to productive employment and the manpower needs of the economy strongly suggest that this is the time to institute a Universal Employment and Training system that guarantees jobs and skills training to allow people to compete for the jobs that exist today.

There's plenty to do. The nation's infrastructure is decaying rapidly. Roads and bridges need to be repaired and rebuilt; rails and ports to be revitalized, homes, sewer lines and water systems need to be built.

Such a program of national renewal would get out industries producing again. It would put people to work, paying taxes and buying consumer goods.

The immediate objection is that it would cost too much. That won't hold water. Unemployment costs too much--the burden on the U.S. Treasury is about $30 billion for every extra point of unemployment.

So if you peg full employment as being a situation in which the jobless rate is four percent, today's extra unemployment costs the government almost $180 billion a year, or almost double that federal budget deficit everyone is worried about.

REFUGEES ISOLATED

INDOCHINESE women refugees, simply because they hardly speak English, are generally isolated at home and have found it difficult to adjust to life in the United States.

This is one of the findings of a study recently commissioned by the Lutheran council in the United States.

Other findings include:

Today's Indochinese refugees tend to be less prepared for making the cultural transition to Am rican life than those who arrived in 1975 and 1977.

Nearly four out of five women are experiencing loneliness and isolation. Many women refuse to speak English at home or to their children.

ISAIAH 35:8;9

And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: The way faring men, though fools, shall not err there-in.

No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there.

LEVITICUS 11:44.

For I am the Lord your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

HEBREWS 12:14

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.

ONCE

Once I felt that life was empty, then another world appear
Once I thought I was all alone, Until we met that day my dear.

Once I felt like giving up, And once I almost did, Once I cried when you said goodby, But again, I knew I had to try.

Once I sat where we used too, Looking out over the lonely sea, The sun was sinking behind the mountain peak, As I closed my eyes lay restless, trying to sleep.

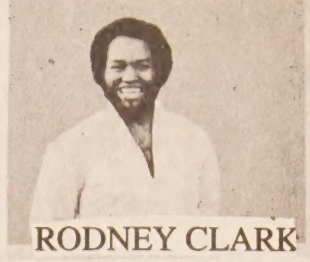
AL Davies Boy's Club



AL DAVIES BOY'S CLUB.

"What! the club is closed? There is no use in having a Boys' Club if it is going to be closed the whole summer." The above phrases spenk for the hundreds of people who have been complaining about the two week closure of Al Davies Boys' Club due to planning, inventory and maintenance repairs. Elmer Dixon, Roger Laskey and yours truly are preparing the program schedule for the 82/83 school year. Due to the drastic cut-back in staff, the club is faced with depending on volunteers, work-study students and parents to support programming for the impending year. Mr. Dixon is constantly on the move recruiting sponsors to absorb the cost of many new programs. Anyone interested in sponsoring any Al Davies Boys' Club program is urged to contact Mr. Dixon at 383-2731, ext. 25 as soon as possible. Without sponsors for the 82/83 year, the Boys' Club could fall flat on its face.

The three tackle football teams are developing into new power houses. All three teams are getting fired up and ready to show the community new talent on the grid iron. Butch Batie, Malcolm Davis and Mames Hardy are building a strong team of seventh grade boys into monsters on the football field. The seventh graders are on a two-a-day practice schedule throughout the week. Sixth grade coaches, Jimmy Ervin and Mike Clark have built a small nucleus of thirteen guys into a strong twenty-five head hunters. These guys hit hard without pads, but these tactics don't scare Eugene Mobley and yours truly's fifth grade squad. The fifth grade boys are looking forward to the inner-scrimmage and rivalry clash with the sicth graders. All teams are expecting to be in pads by September 3. The community's support for all three teams will have a tremendous impact on the way each team plays. The jamboree begins September 11 at Sprinker Recreation Center.

Slam-Dunk basketball begins August 30 at 12:00. All teams should be present because league schedules will be provided for the season.

Anyone interested in coaching cheerleaders, please call 383-2731, ext. 27 as soon as possible. The club expects to build an excellent program for girls 5th - 8th grade. The cheerleaders and youth council will have a car wash this Saturday at the Al Davies parking lot from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Please support the cheerleaders!!!

Free riding lessons

If you don't ride the bus regularly, you're probably passing up some big cost-savings and lots of convenience.

Pierce Transit has just what you need to start catching the bus. It's called How to Ride the Bus, an easy-to-follow guide that takes you step-by-step through a typical bus trip. It tells you who to call for help in planning your trip. How to read the bus schedule and where to get one. What the fare is. How to tell the driver you want to get off. How to transfer from one route to another. Where to buy monthly passes. And everything else you need to know to make you feel comfortable riding the bus.

To get your copy of How to Ride the Bus, call 593-4520. It's guaranteed to make you right at home with the bus.

You've probably heard about PNB's upcoming separation from its parent company, AT&T. A separation that was prompted by the U.S. Department of Justice.

What you've probably little idea of, is how, exactly, the changes will affect you.

First, we'd like to dispel any fears you may have. It has always been, and will always be, our primary concern to provide you with quality, affordable telephone service.

THE REASON FOR THE CHANGE.

In the developing days of the telephone industry, the overriding goal was to provide every home with a phone. Today, more than 96% of all households in America enjoy the use of a telephone.

With the advent of near-universal service, the philosophy of regulating the industry is changing.

Regulators and legislators are now looking to competition in the marketplace to decide what services will be provided at what price and by whom.

WHAT WILL IT COST ME?

Telephone service will continue to be a good value. In fact, we've recently added two new low-cost services called Basic and Budget Measured Service.

With these new services, you'll be charged for your phone service on the basis of how much phone service you use.

If you're a light phone user, you can expect to pay less than a heavy phone user. And visa-versa.

You will still, however, have the option of flat-rate premium service in your home, as well as the new measured services.

While these changes may mean increases to some, they will mean decreases to the majority.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, LET'S TALK.

At PNB, we realize that the exchange of ideas and comments is invaluable. In fact, it's the very foundation of communication.

That's why we want you to know that we're ready to talk about the coming changes any time you are.

Just call 1 800 555-5000.

We'll answer any questions and provide you with more information.

In short, do everything possible to ensure that the transition to new ways of doing business is as smooth as possible for you.

Monroe ousts Hayes at transit

Transportation director reassigned to 'assess career path'

By JACK PYLE

Richard Hayes, 40, has been removed as transportation director of Pierce Transit, it was disclosed today.

Hayes said Pierce Transit Director Don Monroe removed him from the transportation post and "reassigned me to a special assignment."

However, he added that the special assignment included only cleaning up the matters that now are on his desk. Hayes said he had been away from the office recently, but was not ordered to stay away, as had been rumored.

"It wasn't as strong as that," Hayes explained. "It's more a matter that he (Monroe) has been there 18 months and — well, this is just one of those things, I guess."

Hayes served as acting director of Pierce Transit for nine months before Monroe was appointed to the post after the death of Yoshio Kosai.

Although Hayes declined to discuss rumored conflicts among staff members, he said there had been signs that his removal was imminent. "I could see it coming for months."

Monroe said he hadn't fired Hayes, but removing him as transportation director "was necessary to our operations department.

"We've got Dick on a special assignment to give him a chance to assess his career path. His pay will remain the same while he is on this assignment."

Monroe said the length of the "special assignment" has not been determined. He added that it was not true that he ordered Hayes to stay out of the office, "and in fact he is coming in tomorrow to clear up a few things."

Monroe said he is giving Hayes a chance to "make his own assessment of his career — his abilities, and how his experience can best serve him, either here at transit or whatever other opportunities he has."

Monroe said there are some management positions available to Hayes at Pierce Transit, but not transportation director, and "any promotion is blocked for him because I am here."

"We've got a lot of assignments he could take," Monroe said.
